

Monday 7 September

- 16.00 Registration opens
19.00-20.00 Dinner
20.00-21.30 Professional Development Workshop:
EAR, EAR - effective, affective and reflective: patient voices digital storytelling in healthcare education led by Pip Hardy, Director, Patient Voices Programme, Pilgrim Projects, Cambridge; Gemma Stacey, University of Nottingham, Derby, UK

Tuesday 8 September

- 09.00 Registration opens
10.00 Opening of conference
10.15 Keynote Paper: Leadership: its place in ensuring best practice
Dame Elizabeth Fradd, Independent Health Service Adviser
11.15-11.45 Coffee/tea break, Poster and Exhibition viewing
11.45-13.15 First Group of Theme Sessions – Participants join their selected theme session
13.15-14.15 Lunch
14.15-16.00 Participants rejoin their selected theme session
16.00-16.45 Tea/Coffee break, Poster and Exhibition viewing
16.45-18.00 Participants rejoin their selected theme session
18.00 Close of day one
19.00-19.30 Dinner
20.00-21.30 Optional Seminar: Nursing and the new scholarship led by Professor Gary Rolfe, Professor of Nursing, Swansea University, UK

Wednesday 9 September

- 08.30-10.00 Professional Development Workshops:
Writing workshop led by Professor Roger Watson, Professor of Nursing, Sheffield University and Editor of the Journal of Clinical Nursing
OR How to write an abstract led by Professor Jan Draper, Director of Nursing, The Open University, Milton Keynes
Coffee/tea available during the sessions
09.30-10.15 Coffee/tea break, Poster and Exhibition viewing
10.15-11.45 Symposia
12.00-13.00 Keynote Paper: The role of patients in clinical education and assessment
Professor Patsy Stark, Academic Unit of Medical Education, University of Sheffield, UK
13.00-14.00 Lunch
13.30-14.00 Optional Seminar: New guidance for nursing and midwifery students and the pre-registration nursing review led by Jan Goldsmith, Professional Adviser for Education, Nursing and Midwifery Council, London, UK
14.00-15.30 Second Group of Theme Sessions – Participants join their selected theme session
15.30-16.15 Tea/Coffee break, Poster and Exhibition viewing
16.00 Join the complimentary tour of Cambridge
18.30-18.45 Leave by coach for dinner at Gonville and Caius College
19.00 Sparkling wine reception
19.45-24.00 Gala Conference Dinner and entertainment

Thursday 10 September

- 09.00-10.45 Participants rejoin their selected theme session
10.45-11.15 Coffee/tea break, Poster and Exhibition viewing
11.15-12.30 Participants rejoin their selected theme session
12.45-13.00 Close of Conference in main auditorium